

Linda L. Okos

Oct. 22, 1945 to Dec. 19, 2005

Relationship to St. Andrew United Methodist Church: Member of St Andrew since 1976, where she taught Sunday school for ten years, played piano for vacation bible school, served as chairman of education and trustee, and was involved with many church projects,

Family: husband Martin (married Sept. 12, 1970) and four children, Christopher, Jonathan, Stephen (wife: Faith) and Angela Okos;

Recognitions, Activities, Special Interests: She received her bachelor's degree in 1967 from Heidelberg College in Tifton, Ohio, and received her master's degree in science from Ohio State University in 1970. Mrs. Okos was a food and nutrition instructor at Purdue University and was actively involved in her family's farm. She was previously a dietitian at Good Samaritan Hospital in Dayton, Ohio, extension agent for Delaware County, Ohio, and a food and nutrition instructor at Ohio State University. She was a member of the American Dietetic Association and Omicron Nu. She was a graduate of Leadership Lafayette and was active in the Chamber of Commerce Third House, Ag and Small Business and Education committees. She had formerly served as president of the Battle Ground Student, Teacher and Parent Association and several committees

Memorial: Funds were used to purchase 2 chairs, 2 benches and 2 tables of indoor/outdoor furniture which are located in the vestibule at the patio door.

Linda L. Okos, 60

Linda L. Leis Okos, 60, of Battle Ground, died Monday, Dec. 19, 2005, in Lafayette.

Born Oct. 22, 1945, in Dayton, Ohio, she received her bachelor's degree in 1967 from Heidelberg College in Tifton, Ohio, and received her master's degree in science from Ohio State University in 1970.

Okos

Her marriage was to Martin R. Okos on Sept. 12, 1970, in Farmersville, Ohio, and he survives.

Mrs. Okos was a food and nutrition instructor at Purdue University and was actively involved in her family's farm. She was previously a dietitian at Good Samaritan Hospital in Dayton, Ohio, extension agent for Delaware County, Ohio, and a food and nutrition instructor at Ohio State University. She was a member of the American Dietetic Association, Omicron Nu and St. Andrew United Methodist Church, where she served as chairman of education and trustee, and was involved with many church projects, including Battle Ground Methodist Vacation Bible School for many years. She was a graduate of Leadership Lafayette and was active in the Chamber of Commerce Third House, Ag and Small Business and Education committees. She had formerly served as president of the Battle Ground Student, Teacher and Parent Association and several committees.

Surviving with her husband are four children, Christopher, Jonathan, Stephen (wife: Faith) and Angela Okos; a sister, Sara Keener (husband: Omer); and a brother, Randal Leis.

One half of the furniture purchased with funds donated in the memory of Linda