

RoseMarie Poole
Sept. 4, 1921 to July 5, 2006

Relationship to St. Andrew United Methodist Church:

RoseMarie attended St. Andrew after moving to West Lafayette in 2003. She came from Arlington, Virginia where she was a member of Christ-Crossman United Methodist Church for over 50 years.

Family:

RoseMarie was the mother of Dorothy Taylor, a member of St. Andrew, Guy Rogers of Tucson, Arizona, and William Rogers of Virginia Beach, Virginia and stepmother to James Solomone and Donna May Poole of Virginia. She had 10 grandchildren, two step-grandchildren, and 4 great-grandchildren. She took great joy in taking care of Annabel English – her newest great-granddaughter

Recognitions, Activities, Special Interests:

RoseMarie enjoyed duck pin bowling and had received several awards. She was always busy with yard work if the weather permitted. She also enjoyed embroidery. She made over 40 full size quilts, both embroidering and quilting them. She gave them to family and friends. She also embroidered scarves, pillow cases, and table cloths which she also gave away.

Memorial:

Money is being used for the benefit of the children of St. Andrew. Televisions with DVD players required for the elementary education curriculum have been purchased and placed in the Sprouts and 2nd - 3rd grade classrooms in her memory

Deaths

RoseMarie Poole, 84

RoseMarie Solomone Rogers Poole, 84, of West Lafayette, formerly of Arlington, Va., died Wednesday, July 5, 2006, at St. Mary Healthcare Center.

Poole

She was born Sept. 4, 1921, in Windber, Pa., to the late Domenica Buscaglia and Vincenzo James Solomone. She attended school in the Windber area.

Her first marriage was to Row Glenn Rogers on June 1, 1946, in Washington D.C., and they divorced. Her second marriage was to Warner Seymour Poole on June 1, 1972, in Arlington, and he preceded her in death.

Mrs. Poole worked for the U.S. Department of Commerce in Washington D.C. during World War II, operating lithographic printing presses. She later worked in retail and in commercial housekeeping in Arlington.

She was a member of Christ Crossman United Methodist Church in Arlington and attended St. Andrew United Methodist Church in West Lafayette, where she was a member of the United Methodist Women and the Know and Grow Sunday school class. She enjoyed duck pin bowling, embroidery and gardening.

Surviving are a daughter, Dorothy R. Taylor (husband: David) of West Lafayette; two sons, William G. Rogers (wife: Angela) of Virginia Beach, Va., and Guy R. Rogers (wife: Darlene) of Tucson, Ariz.; two stepchildren, Donna May Poole and James Solomone (wife: Julie) of Sterling, Va.; two sisters, Nancy Bobby (husband: John) of Strausburg, Va., and Dolores Paris (husband: Alex Thompson) of Ocean View, Del.; and two brothers, Robert Solomone (wife: Pat) and Stephen W. Solomone of Philadelphia.

A memorial service will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday, July 13, at St. Andrew United Methodist Church, West Lafayette, the Rev. Tim Burchill officiating. She especially enjoyed playing with her great-granddaughter, Annabel. Surviving are 10 grandchildren, Rebecca Taylor English (husband: Bill) of Lafayette, Michael J. Taylor of Jackson, MI, Catherine E. Taylor of West Lafayette, Bridget Grimes of Virginia Beach, VA, Daniel Lazar (wife: Jessica) of Katy, TX, Kristina Louka (husband: Nicholas) of Richmond, VA, Candice Rogers of Virginia Beach, VA, Sara E. Rogers, Angelica M. Rogers, and Amy D. S. Rogers, all of Tucson, AZ; 2 step-grandchildren, Nicholas Solomone and Paige E. Solomone of Sterling, VA; and 4 great-grandchildren, Annabel E. English of Lafayette, Aaron Lazar and Victoria Lazar of Katy, TX and Gabriel Grimes of Virginia Beach, VA. Preceded in death by 2 brothers, Angelo D. Solomone and Benjamin Solomone; 2 sisters, Martha Yolanda Poole (husband: Warner S.) and Rebecca Solomone. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to St. Andrew United Methodist Church's Vacation Bible School fund.

Television with DVD player in Sprouts Classroom