Obituary

John Issac Bryan

(January 12, 1936-July 16, 2025)

John Isaac Bryan was born on January 12, 1936 in Mulberry Indiana to Edna Mae and Lawrence David Bryan. He died peacefully the morning of July 16, 2025 at the age of 89.

John grew up in Mulberry and Lafayette and graduated in 1953 from Jefferson High School at the age of 17. On August 9, 1953, he said he was 18 so that he could enlist early in the U.S. Marines Corps and serve his country. He served as a Communication Lineman from 1953 until 1956, serving in the Korean War. John moved back to Lafayette and enrolled at Purdue University where he graduated with his Bachelor's and a Master's degree in Education.

John began his teaching career in Northern California before moving back to Indiana and continuing his teaching career on the opening staff at Harrison High School in 1970. When McCutcheon High School opened in 1975, he transferred and was on the opening teaching staff there as well. He took pride in having been on the first teaching staff at both schools. John taught at McCutcheon until retirement in 2004. He taught drafting, printing, and Industrial Arts, but made his mark when he settled in as the Industrial Cooperative Training (ICT) Coordinator and sponsor of the VICA club. He helped shape hundreds of lives throughout his teaching career.

John married Beverly Charlene Schwarz on June 24, 1977. Together they led church youth groups, held mentoring breakfasts for his students, operated a home daycare, and raised a beautiful family until her death in 2016. He was active in St. Andrew United Methodist Church for many years.

John married Mary Jane Hendren on November 8, 2017. Mary Jane brought 4 sons, 5 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren into the family. While they did not have many years together, they made a wonderful life together and she was faithfully at his side until his passing.

John enjoyed everything. He did not know a stranger and was never at a loss for words. As a youth, he spent hours at the skating rink and delivering newspapers, and as an adult he enjoyed woodworking, bike riding, and camping with his family. He loved the Marines, he loved Purdue, he loved his students, and he loved his family. He was grateful for the beautiful life God had given him.

John is preceded in death by his parents, brother Larry, son Scott Schwarz and his wife Beverly. John leaves behind a large family that will carry on his faith, his love of Purdue and of the Marines. Daniel (Amy) Schwarz of Charlotte, NC, John (Stacey) Schwarz of Fishers, Dawn (Kevin) Boyd of Lafayette, Kevin (Kelsey) Schwarz of Noblesville, and Joy May of Lafayette. He leaves behind 13 grandchildren; Andrew (Kenna) Fisher of Muncie, Emily Fisher of Lafayette, Bradley (Casey Toth) Schwarz of Durham, NC, Caroline (Austin) Dailey of Durham, NC, Blake Schwarz of Indianapolis, Cagney (Blake) Jennings of Noblesville, Lily (Sergio) Hurtado of Noblesville, Jackson Schwarz of Elwood, Grayson Schwarz of Charlotte, NC, Nathan Schwarz of Noblesville, Tyler Schwarz of Fishers, Adam May of Lafayette, and Noel May of Lafayette.
